

AAQARQARHA

Root

The drug Aaqarqarha consists of dried roots of Anacyclus pyrethrum (L.) Lag. (Asteraceae); a perennial, procumbent herb. Leaves bipinnatisect, segments linear, ray florets white, purplish beneath. The plant is indigenous to North Africa and occurs throughout the year. Flowering and fruiting take place during winter season.

- Temperament: Hot 3° Dry 3°
- Action(s): Anaesthetic (Mukhaddir), Aphrodisiac (Muqawwi-e-Bah), Calming agent (Musakkin)
- Therapeutic Use(s): Odontalgia (Waja-ul-Asnan), Hemiplegia(Falij), Cough(Surfa), Hoarseness of voice(Bohat-us- Saut), Sexual debility(Zof-e-Bah)
- Dose: 2 to 3g.
- Important Formulation(s): Anqaruya-e-K.abir, Barshasha, Jawarish- Zarooni Sada, Luboob Sagheer, Majoon-e- Baladur, Majoon-e-Salab, Raughan-e-Seer, Raughan-e-Sudab, Tila-e-Mulazziz, Sunoon- e-Mukrij-e-Rutubat, Sunoon-e-Muluk, Habb-e-Falij Mulayin, Habb-e-Mumsik Qawi, Majoon-e-Zabeeb, Raughan-e-Qust, Sunoon-e-Mujalli,Qairooi-e-Aarad-e-Karsana