

BAHARANGI

Root

The drug Baharangi consists of dried mature roots of Clerodendrum phlomidis L.f. (Verbenaceae); a large shrub or small tree reaching upto 9 m in height, with more or less pubescent branches, found in dry parts throughout the country.

- Temperament: Hot and Dry
- Action(s): Stimulant (Moharrik), Resolvent of swelling/Anti-inflammatory (Mohallil-e-Waram), Antispasmodic (Daf-e-Tashannuj)
- Therapeutic Use(s): Neurasthenia (Zof-e-Asab), Tremor (Rasha), Facial Paralysis (Laqwa), Hemiplegia(Falij), Cervical Lymphadenopathy (Khanazeer), Bronchial asthma(Zeeq-un-Nafas), Swelling (Waram)
- Dose: Decoction of 12 to 24 g of the drug
- Important Formulation(s): Majoon Jograj Gugal